11200 Sanctions

Texas Farmers/Farmers' Market Sanction Policy

Infraction		Explanation/Example	Points
1	Redemption of invalid vouchers: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Redeemed after end date 	Must not exceed 5% of redeemed vouchers	1 Point
2	Providing unauthorized food or goods, except for firearms, ammunition, or controlled substances as defined in 21 USC 802 (including alcohol and tobacco), which have a higher points penalty. See #9 below.	Nuts or Clothing	5 Points
3	Charging FMNP customers more than other customers	$6.00 worth of food for a participant is less than for a non-participant	4 Points
4	Requiring cash to be paid by FMNP participant in addition to voucher		5 Points
5	Asking FMNP participants to pay for vouchers not redeemed by TDA		5 Points
6	Falsifying information on vouchers	Date redeemed	5 Points
7	Charging for food items not received	Rain checks	5 Points
8	Providing false information on a farmer/farmers' market application		15 Points
9	Exchanging vouchers for money or non-food items	Alcohol, tobacco, firearms, ammunition, or other controlled substance	25 Points
10	Refusing to provide access to records, prices, redeemed vouchers to TDA staff or contractors		15 Points

A CE may disqualify a farmer or farmers’ market from participation in the FMNP if the sanction score reaches 15 points or more during the year of participation. Disqualification of a farmer prohibits that farmer from selling at markets or roadside stands. The disqualification periods are:

Total Number of Points	Disqualification Period
15 Points	1 Year	May not accept vouchers for the current period
20 Points	2 Years	May not accept vouchers for the current period and the next year
25 Points	3 Years	May not accept vouchers for the current period and the next two years

Farmers and farmers’ markets have the right to appeal a decision for sanctions. For information on how to request an appeal, see Section 8000.

11300 TDA Civil Rights Training

The TDA online Civil Rights training is located at www.squaremeals.org. Under Quick Links near the bottom of the home page, click on Civil Rights Training, select Civil Rights, and then select the Civil Rights course.

At the end of the civil rights course, there is a quiz and a certificate of completion to print and maintain in your FMNP files.
