

Stephanie Robinson, MBA

Stephanie Robinson serves as the administrator for business management in the Texas Department of Agriculture's Food and Nutrition Division. In this role, she provides direction and oversight in the planning and execution of the division's fiscal administration ensuring alignment with the Legislative Appropriations Request, State Operating Budget, and Federal State Plans. In addition, she oversees the development and implementation of process improvements, quality control, and operational efficiencies for business management to ensure alignment with the agency's goals and objectives as outlined in the Food and Nutrition Division's strategic plan.

Stephanie has over 10 years' experience in budget, finance, and public policy, most recently serving as the chief financial officer of the Texas Veterans Commission and prior to that as the assistant deputy director of the Budget and Planning Division at the Texas Commission on Environmental Quality. She has a Bachelor of Science in Psychology from the University of Idaho and a Master of Business Administration from Texas A&M University – Central Texas. Stephanie currently resides in the Austin area with her fiancé.