Contract Solicitations and Overly
Responsive Vendor Submittals

2025 NSLP Financial Report

01

Contract Solicitation and Overly Responsive Vendor Submittals

Contract Solicitation

- The solicitation must include the items to be awarded.
- Changes must not occur after solicitation closes.
- Solicitations must not include duplicative of services that are provided by ESCs.
- Any potential offerors cannot be included in the development of the solicitation

Overly Responsive Vendor Submittals

Any extra goods/services not described in the solicitation that are included in the offer are overly responsive elements. SFAs must only consider the specific goods/services requested in the solicitation.

SFAs must determine if the proposal is overly responsive during the evaluation process.

Overly responsive offers may not be considered as part of the selection process and cannot be awarded the contract.
