Farm Fresh Spotlight Story

Prepare Now for USDA's Upcoming Farm to School Census

USDA will conduct the Farm to School Census next month. By taking the survey, you help us assess the growth of farm to school across the nation. This is the first survey since 2015 and USDA has put together the Census preparation survey to help contracting entities (CEs) prepare their survey answers.

The 2019 Census will ask questions similar to those asked in the past, including the following:

- What is the CE's definition of local?
- How much money is spent on local food purchases annually?
- What local products are most commonly purchased?
- Where are the local foods from?
- What are the biggest challenges and benefits of engaging in farm to school?
- How many edible school gardens are in the district?
- How many salad bars are in the district?

All answers will be publicly available in 2020. View previous Farm to School Census data at farmtoschoolcensus.fns.usda.gov.

Help Texas reach our goal of 80% participation in the 2019 Census!

Summer Programs Were Super Social during the 2019 Summer Farm Fresh Challenge

While the Texas heat only seems to have just arrived, the summer of 2019 is already nearly over. This year marked the second summer that summer sponsors could take the Farm Fresh Challenge. Many programs went above and beyond and showed off their activities on social media. There were 31 sponsors that received the highest award level, Best of the Bunch, and one sponsor that received the Prime Participant award!
